

Case Study: Resourcing

Outsourced Recruiting Model: A Collaborative Recruitment Approach

Project Scope:

- » Location: Pacific Northwest
- » Facilities: 4
- » Number of Employees: 22,000+
- » Project Length: Ongoing
- » Extending Epic Services to Affiliate Physician Offices

The HCI Team:

- » 2 Senior Recruiters

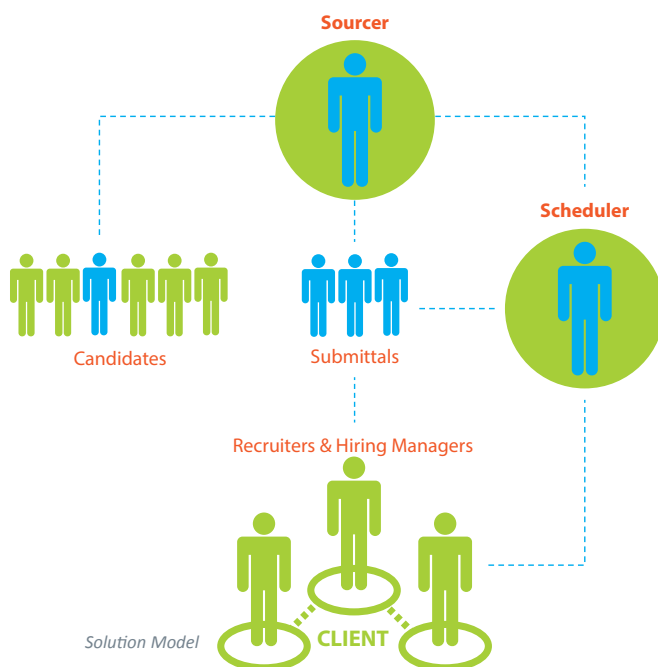

The HCI Group was recently contracted to support the recruiting efforts of a major healthcare system in the Pacific Northwest.

Project Goals:

- » Obtaining and on-boarding a large number of local candidates
- » Various skills/expertise needed to be interviewed, vetted, scored and presented for Contract to Hire options later to be converted to full-time employees

Challenges:

- » 30 employees needed to be on-boarded
- » Compressed time frame to meet project goals
- » On-site talent acquisition team was overwhelmed
- » Limited budget
- » Full time staff requirement
 - » Hiring contractors would not have made the project sustainable long term
 - » Direct hires too costly

Solution:

- » Dedicated HCI billable resources to handle:
 - » Sourcing
 - » Vetting
 - » Scheduling
 - » Weekly meetings with hiring manager
- » On-boarding Assistance
